[redacted] STAT

11 April 1951

Dear Freddie:

It was good to get your letter of 7 April 1951, with STAT regard to [redacted] had recommended her to me and I had a talk with her the other day. She has filed her papers and I shall see what I can do to try to help them along. I agree with you that she is the type of girl we ought to try to get in here and I will do my best although at the present time it is not too easy in the absence of some highly specialized type of knowledge or experience.

I am delighted to know that you expect to be in Washington sometime this month. I hope you will let us know at the above address where Clover and I are now living, although at the moment with the wedding in the offing, Clover is more in New York than here. We will miss you at the wedding but appreciate the difficulty of getting away from [redacted] STAT particularly now that Spring is here. Love to Katie.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Personal

April 7, 1951

Dear Allen:

[redacted] STAT

However, I want to supplement it with a personal letter to you because I believe [redacted] STAT is worth a lot of serious consideration. Putting myself back in SI I would unhesitatingly give her a job because I think she is intelligent, conscientious, of a good temperament for the type of work, intensely loyal and 100% American.

[redacted] STAT

I realize how occupied you must be and hesitate to add to your reading matter, but knowing [redacted] as I believe I do, and wanting so much to have CIA succeed, I cannot help but send you these lines. STAT

We were delighted to get Toddy's invitation and Katie sent a present the other day which will be our representation, if we are unable to be there ourselves.

Meanwhile I hope to be in Washington some time this month for at least a few days and will hope to catch a glimpse of you than.

With all best wishes,

Yours ever,

Ferdinand
